

Anglican Diocese of Adelaide

10 April 2021

Anglican memorial service for HRH The Duke of Edinburgh

A memorial service giving thanks for the life of Prince Philip will be held at St Peter's Cathedral in North Adelaide on Sunday 18 April at 6pm.

Statement by the Archbishop of Adelaide, Geoff Smith, Primate of the Anglican Church the death of Prince Philip:

"I was saddened to hear of the death of His Royal Highness Prince Philip, The Duke of Edinburgh and join with people in the United Kingdom and Commonwealth in mourning his loss. I thank God for his life of service.

"On behalf of the Anglican Church of Australia, I extend our deepest sympathies and condolences to Her Majesty and the royal family.

"Throughout Prince Philip's life he supported Her Majesty the Queen with a steadfast loyalty while maintaining a candour and individualism that made him an authentic figure across the Commonwealth, including Australia which he visited more than any other royal.

"I pray that his life of service will be an inspiration to people today and into the future and that the Queen and the rest of the royal family will know the presence and comfort of God at this difficult time."

Contact: media@adelaideanglicans.org or 0405 862 785