I have been an Anglican since birth, growing up in Sydney. After school, I spent most of the next 20 years in Canberra-Goulburn Diocese, except for four years overseas studying for a Masters in Christian Studies at Regent College (Vancouver) and a PhD at Vrije Universiteit (Amsterdam), in Biblical Hebrew linguistics. I was ordained to the priesthood in 2009 and in 2010 moved to Adelaide to be Principal of St Barnabas Theological College (2010-2017). I was delighted to be commissioned as Priest in Charge at St Theodore's, Toorak Gardens, in September 2022.

I have always loved parish ministry and academic scholarship, and I remain active in both areas. In ministry, I enjoy preaching and pastoral work. I have presented Bible Studies at the National Anglican Deacons Conference; the National Anglican Bishops Conference; the Willochra and Adelaide Synods; the Willochra, Adelaide, Ballarat, and Canberra-Goulburn Clergy Conferences; General Synod; and the National Anglican Deans Conference.

I have represented the Diocese of Adelaide at General Synod since 2017 and am actively engaged with Anglicans from around the country in the promotion of an inclusive, comprehensive, and open-hearted Anglicanism.

I have been on the Doctrine Commission for the Anglican Church of Australia since 2014, contributing three chapters to our book, Marriage, Same-sex Marriage and the Anglican Church of Australia: Essays from the Doctrine Commission, 2019: "Scripture and Moral Reasoning", "An Alternative Reading of the BCP", and "The Case for Same-Sex Marriage". I also submitted a substantial paper to the Appellate Tribunal Wangaratta Referral (2020).

These publications, and my advocacy in the media and elsewhere as a straight ally for LGBTIQA+ Anglicans, are also integral to my vocation as a priest and scholar.

In academia, I am an honorary research fellow/doctoral supervisor at the University of Sydney, University of Queensland, University of Adelaide, and Charles Sturt University. I founded and co-chair the Biblical Hebrew Language and Linguistics Unit, Society of Biblical Literature (International), and am a member of the Linguistics and Biblical Hebrew Unit, Society of Biblical Literature, and the National Association of Professors of Hebrew (USA). I am also a trustee of the Australian Research Theological Foundation Incorporated (ARTFinc).

My major research area currently is the Psalms. Under the auspices of the Liturgy Commission of the ACA, I am preparing a new translation of the Psalms for public worship. I am grateful for this opportunity to translate, study, and reflect deeply upon the Psalms, as it draws together both my pastoral and scholarly vocations.

I have been involved in a wide range of ministries within the Diocese of Adelaide and beyond. I am currently the Rector of the Parish of Christ Church North Adelaide having commenced in the parish at the beginning of 2021. With ministry as a Parish Priest, Hospital and School Chaplaincy I am nominate with a variety of experiences and insights.

I have been in Ordained ministry since 2008, being ordained then at the age of 24. I am personally interested in seeing the Anglican Church empower all the baptised to live out their calling as followers of Jesus. It is the churches role to encourage and equip God's people to share the Good news about Jesus.

I have grown and been formed in the Diocese of Adelaide, having attended school at St. Andrew's Walkerville and then Pulteney Grammar School. Growing up in the Parish of St. Matthew's Kensington.

I commenced theological training at St Barnabas College in 2004. Graduating with a Bachelor of Theology. I have since completed in 2018 Master of Arts (Christian Leadership) through the Sydney College of Divinity including being part of the Arrow Emerging leaders program.

I have had involvement in the Parish of St. Mary Magdalene's, St. George's Magill, St. Peter's Glenelg, St. Peter's Cathedral, St. Martin's Campbelltown. I served a curacy at St. Peter's Glenelg before moving to the Diocese of Newcastle where I was the Rector of Bateau Bay Parish. While in Newcastle Diocese I was both a Spiritual Director and Spiritual Advisor to the Cursillo Movement in that Diocese. I was also the chaplain at Long Jetty Hospital.

Since returning to the Diocese of Adelaide, I have held ministry roles in Salisbury, Parafield Gardens, Lyell McEwin Hospital, St. Columba's Hawthorn and Walford Anglican School for Girls

My breath of church experiences range from the Book of Common Prayer at Christ Church North Adelaide, all the way through to Fresh Expressions of church in other parish. While in the Diocese of Newcastle I was involved in introducing the Fresh Expression of Church called Messy Church to the Diocese. At Bateau Bay parish we saw over 100 people each month come to find out about the Christian faith a model that was copied at several other parishes with similar success.

I have previously been a committee member of the Salisbury Business Association (2017-2019), a Member of BCA- SA/NT Regional Committee (2015-2016) a Mission support – Member of CMS-SA/NT (incorporating SAMS) and General Committee (2006 – 2009) Candidates Selection Committee (interviewed and recommended to General Committee – candidates for overseas missionary service). And within the diocese a was a member of the Mission and Evangelism Ministry Unit—Diocese of Adelaide 2015-2016

I am nominating for election by the Synod, as someone who has over a decade of ordained ministry experience, as someone who has grown up and been formed by the Diocese of Adelaide, and as someone who has a long term commitment to see people come to know Jesus through our churches.

Since my ordination to the Priesthood in 2013, the majority of my ministry has been exercised as a Chaplain in schools and, for the last five years, at AnglicareSA. I am one of three Employee Support Chaplains and have the privilege of providing spiritual and pastoral care to employees and volunteers who work with the vulnerable and marginalised people in our state. It is good to work for an organisation that upholds the Anglican tradition of seeing all persons, just as they are, as gifts from God to be valued and treasured.

I regularly get invited to preach and preside in parishes across the Adelaide Diocese and always receive a warm welcome. It is often an opportunity to thank them for their generosity in supporting AnglicareSA, and fills me with great hope that the Gospel of Inclusion that Jesus modelled is being lived out, when I meet so many parishioners who find ways to show care for others with no strings attached.

I am passionate about a Church that values inclusion, generosity, affirmation, hospitality, conversation, and open-heartedness. I care deeply that our Church lives out these values both at a local and national level, and the positions I have nominated for reflect this.

My professional background is advertising and brand communication strategy (appearing on Gruen Nation, leading communication strategy for Harley-Davidson Motorcycles and various Unilever FMCG brands). I therefore have a passion for bridging the gap between the message of hope Jesus provides and communicating it simply and effectively with the many who feel disconnected from God and Christian (and Anglican) culture. This passion has led me, under God, to pursue a grasp of the Mandarin language, not only to communicate more effectively with my father-in-law of Mandarin speaking background, but as is the case more recently, to share well known stories from the gospel accounts such as the prodigal son with those joining us in Australia from east Asia. My hope is to bring these skills, experiences and passion to bear in any way possible to progress and enrich the Anglican Church in our diocese, to the glory of our Lord Jesus.

I am currently the Parish Priest of Belair Anglican Church (seven years and counting!) and Education Missioner for the Anglican Board of Mission-Australia (ABM-A). I am also a Canon of St Peter's Cathedral.

I spent 25 years in full-time para-church ministry before being ordained in Adelaide 11 years ago. I have a background in professional theatre, the creative arts and communication, having worked for ABM-A for over 15 years (in Youth, Education and Communications) and as founder/writer/director for Company of Sinners, a theatre group working in schools on behalf of the Schools Ministry Group.

As Education Officer for ABM-A, Media Officer for the Diocese, and Editor of the Guardian I won awards for excellence from the Australasian Religious Press Association, for film and press stories.

I am the author/editor of many ABM-A Lenten Studies, including this years', 'Repairing the Breach' which sold over 2500 copies.

For five years, I was Chaplain of St John's Grammar in the Adelaide Hills. I represented (as a Lay person) the Anglican Church of Australia at the Council of Churches of East Asia for three years, and have traveled to many countries (Vanuatu, the Solomon Islands, Papua New Guinea, the Philippines, Palestine and Israel, Ethiopia, Kenya, Zambia, Egypt) visiting and making films about the work of the Anglican Church. I have also spent considerable time learning from Indigenous Anglican leaders on country.

I offer a broad experience of the church, both nationally and internationally and combine a passion for Jesus with clear, analytical, creative and strategic thinking skills. I wish to see the church flourish in as inclusive a way as possible.

Congregant Woodville Parish
Member of Woodville Parish Council
Member of Synod 2010- present
Member of Diocesan Council: 2017 - 2022
Assistant Crown Solicitor, Crown Solicitor's Office
Married and mother of four teenagers

As a member of a small and diminishing parish, I understand the challenges faced by many of our parishes, as well as how a small parish can offer much to both its own faithful community but also the community around it.

Bringing up children in the church at this time it has not been easy, but conversely the joys of cross-generational communities have been many as my children have built strong relationships in the Parish. I appreciate (and believe in) the need for change but also that there is good in what we have. Somehow we need to take all this and move forward.

As a longstanding government lawyer I bring skills to the Diocesan Council in risk management, governance and as well a general legal matters. My legal work has also concerned some of the most vulnerable members of our community including children, criminal offenders and the mentally ill. I am keenly aware of the need to temper a legalistic approach with compassion and pragmatism. I have a practical approach to problem solving and board matters generally.

The Revd. Canon William Deng Deng

I was born and raised in South Sudan and later, in Ethiopia and Kenya as refugee and then ordained into the diaconate in the Diocese of Wau in 2000, South Sudan and priested in the Diocese of Olympia, Western Washington State US in 2011. At present, I am the Priest-in-Charge at St. Mary's Anglican Church South Road.

Prior to my role as the Priest in Charge at St. Mary's, I was an assistant Priest at St. James' Episcopal Church in the diocese of the Western Washington State, from 2011-2013 while looking after St. John's Sudanese Episcopal Church from 2001-2013. I was a Locum at St. John Evangelist, Salisbury, 2013 and St. Richard's Lockleys 2014-2015.

I am interested in running for Diocesan Council, General Synod Representatives, Panel of Assessors, and St. Barnabas College Council. I am inspired by the powerful statement of Vision 2022 that said, "We will be a Diocese of flourishing Anglican communities, united and connected." Since there is a growing diversity in our diocese, there is a need for a multicultural voice.

I have developed excellent communication skills with people from various cultures and backgrounds. With my wide range of experience in church context and formal qualifications, I am certain that I will be competent for any position in the church. I am ready to share my experience with the wider communities around the diocese. Together, we will proclaim the gospel of the Risen Lord in this diocese and beyond.

I am the Parish Priest at St Saviour's Glen Osmond.

I have been in full time ministry for 12 years, having served in the Diocese of The Murray since 2010 as Priest Assistant in the Southern Vales, which takes in Aldinga, McLaren Vale and Willunga and as Priest-in-Charge of the Riverland for more than seven years taking in seven centres. I was commissioned as Parish Priest at Glen Osmond in October last year.

I believe I have considerable experience to be on Diocesan Council for Adelaide. I was on Diocesan Council for The Murray for 11 years. I took an active role in programs and initiatives furthering the mission of the church in consultation with the Bishop. I held various responsibilities including safe ministry, Editor of the Diocesan magazine, The Murray Anglican and in being Media Officer for Synod. I was also on Provincial Council for 11 years and on the Bishop's Election Committee.

I have extensive media experience, having spent 10 years in commercial radio in Adelaide and interstate as a broadcaster, journalist and producer of talk programs, and with the ABC in Adelaide and Port Lincoln in SA and in Wollongong and Sydney in NSW for 25 years as a journalist, broadcaster and in management.

I am passionate about the necessity for continued formation and training for lay and clergy. I am part way myself through a Graduate Certificate in Ministry focussed on leadership at St Barnabas College.

I am also passionate about furthering God's mission in the Anglican Church. Hence, I believe I wish to be on Diocesan Council to support this through the updated diocesan vision. I also wish to help support the Diocese in its governance and decision making.

The Provincial Council is an opportunity for the three dioceses in SA to meet, discuss and make decisions that are relevant across the Province, usually on an annual basis.

I would like to be on the Council representing the Diocese of Adelaide, and the opportunity to bring with it the skills, experience and knowledge of the Province.

I have belonged to the St Peter's Cathedral community since 2005. Previous parishes have included: St Oswald's Parkside, Church of Emmanuel - Wayville. I grew up at St Hugh's, Angaston as my family parish.

Having served as the cathedral's People's Warden (2017-2020), my current roles are: cathedral council, Dean's nomination committee, Synod representative; and within the diocese, Bishop's nomination committee, observer at Willochra Synod, St Barnabas college council. I am also a Director of AnglicareSA, and Chair the Advancement and Philanthropy committee.

The past eco-spirituality treks in the Willochra diocese played a pivotal part in my adult spirituality, as did the Wayville community (ex FUSA chaplaincy), and as do current clubfoot projects, and AnglicareSA roles.

I have a multi-path career as an academic (PhD conferred 2005) at La Trobe University and University of Barcelona, an Adelaide based clinician, and a Director of the Australian Podiatry Association. I continue to lecture globally, and academic publications include a textbook, multiple book chapters, many peer-reviewed journal articles, and a monograph series.

From 2005, I volunteered with Red Cross clubfoot projects in Vietnam. Since 2008 this transferred to a non-government aid project in Bangladesh, called 'Walk for Life Clubfoot', which has now treated over 30,000 children with congenital clubfoot deformity. Currently I am teaching across 30 countries as part of the Global Clubfoot Initiative, Oxford.

Wider volunteer history includes: National Medical Education Scientific Council and Medical Education Scientific Advisory Council of Diabetes Australia; Scientific Committees for National conferences, Medical programs at Sydney 2000 Olympic Games; World Winter Games Special Olympics, 2005; 2006 Melbourne Commonwealth Games; Clinical Director of National Games – Special Olympics, 2010.

In 2016 I received the British Medical Journal South Asia Healthcare Award for Excellence in Delivery of Primary Care for 'Walk for Life Clubfoot', and in 2019 became a Member of the Order of Australia. A key interest is the nexus between research and clinical practice, and the urgent need for environmental sustainability in healthcare.

I am a life-long Anglican, baptised in infancy at Emmanuel Church, Loughborough, and confirmed as a young adult at St Chad's Church, Fullarton, by Bishop Keith Rayner. I was a member of Parish Council at St Oswald's, Parkside, and at St John's, Salisbury (where I was also People's Warden); member of the Nomination Committee at St John's, Salisbury, and at Holy Cross, Elizabeth; Synod Representative for Holy Cross; Director of Music at Holy Cross, St Augustine's Para Hills, and Holy Innocents', Crafers; and member of the Board of St Barnabas College, Adelaide (including a stint on the Finance Committee). I have enjoyed participating in many non-official-appointment activities in the Anglican (and Roman Catholic) Church in South Australia, mostly associated with worship, Christian education, liturgical music, knitting and embroidery, Sanctuary Guild, community-oriented cooking and eating, and mission to seafarers through Stella Maris. I undertook postgraduate education in Theological Studies at Flinders University and hold the Roman Catholic Bishop's Diploma in Pastoral Liturgy.

In my day-job, I was initially a Psychiatric Nurse (RPN, RMN, RN) with an endorsed speciality in the field of drug and alcohol addiction who worked in several health-care facilities and hospitals. After the birth of my second child, Astrid, I left the Prison Medical Services and returned to university, graduating from the University of Adelaide with a Doctorate in political-legal history and a Graduate Diploma in Education.

Gaining an academic position at Flinders University, I taught in the history program (indigenous-settler relations, religion-associated wars, and environments) and in security studies (food security and global mindsets), and held several administrative roles (including Chair of the Research Higher Degrees Program in the Faculty of Social and Behavioural Sciences, Associate Dean (Academic) in the School of International Studies, and Deputy to the Dean until I became Dean myself). I undertook leadership training at LH Martin, the University of Queensland Business School, and in the Flinders Vice Chancellor's Management and Leadership Program. At the same time (among other things) I was a member of several scholarly organisations, President of the International Water History Association, SACE Board Chief Assessor for History, and lecturer at UNESCO IHE, Delft.

Unsurprisingly, my experience built in me a fascination with how institutions form, change and perpetuate themselves - a fascination that inspires my academic research. I am currently working on the dynamics of military and industrial mobilization for war and their impacts on large institutions such as the Australian Army and various arms of the Australian government.

I was born in South Korea and an ethnic Korean, but I have lived in five different countries and served in three different Anglican Communion provinces. In my ministry, I have led services with sermons in three different languages (English, Korean, and Turkish). I have had close interactions with Muslims and Eastern Orthodox Christians, so I have great interest in Ecumenism and inter-religious dialogues. I would like to use my wide experiences in service to the diocese as I believe I can bring some diversity to the different committees as I am from a different cultural background and have had different experiences.

My name is Tim Hender and I am seeking appointment to the St Barnabas College Council. My current roles in the Diocese are as follows.

- ~ Member of the Diocesan Risk and Advisory Committee,
- ~ Lay Reader at St George the Martyr Goodwood.
- ~ Parish Support (i.e., bookkeeper, Safe Ministry Coordinator and Safety & Risk Officer), also at Goodwood.

In addition I graduated with distinction from St Barnabas in 2020 with a Graduate Diploma in Theology and my relationship with the College has continued as a member of the NT Greek Research Group.

My professional and academic experience allow me to bring two distinct perspectives to the St Barnabas Council.

Professionally, I have over twenty years' experience in reducing risk to not-for-profits and the private sector by providing sound business judgement as commercial and/or contract manager on complex projects in the defence support, aviation and resource industries. My success has been built upon transparent and trusted relationships and a 'hands-on' approach that balances my technical skills with real-world experience. Within the Church, my two roles as a member of DRAC and as Parish Support have provided me with a thorough understanding of the Diocese's end-to-end financial and other processes and, perhaps most importantly, Registry's expectations when requiring input from parishes and other bodies. I will apply this knowledge to the relationship between St Barnabas and Registry.

Academically, I hold the following qualifications.

- ~ Certificate in Governance and Risk Management, Governance Institute (all requirements completed, awaiting formal award).
- ~ Master of Philosophy, University of Divinity: School of Graduate Research (Current).
- ~ Graduate Diploma in Theology, Charles Sturt University: St Barnabas College.
- ~ Master of Commercial Law, University of Melbourne.
- ~ Bachelor of Arts (Honours), University of Melbourne.

As a student at two theological colleges I have witnessed both common and contrasting responses to the struggle to maintain enrolment numbers and funding – for example, the tension between full-time and part-time employment models, the vital importance of maintaining and developing libraries in constrained circumstances and the potential of providing courses to laypeople. I hope to explore these and other issues more deeply as a member of the St Barnabas Council and to work on sustainable solutions that will benefit the College and, by extension, our Diocese.

My full CV is available at www.timothyhender.com.

I value your support for my nomination.

I am a Christian and a longstanding member of the Anglican Church of Australia within the diocese of Adelaide. I am a parishioner of St Oswald's church at Parkside where I am the honorary Director of Music, and one of the parish's synod representatives. I have been so for the past 4 years. I live with my partner and have 3 adult daughters. My professional background was in medicine. I retired 4 years ago from my position as a clinical practitioner in paediatric renal (kidney) disease at the Women's and Children's Hospital, where I had been employed since 1986. During this time I was appointed Medical Head of the Renal Unit from 1999 to 2014.

During my career I have had a significant interest in medical ethics and have published jointly with ethicists in this field. I served on the hospital's Human Research Ethics Committee from 1988 to 2002 and chaired the committee for 12 of those years; I also established the first Clinical Ethics Committee at the hospital which I chaired for 8 years.

I firmly believe that the church must address the difficult issues that are inherent in ensuring the good governance of its leaders and people. How otherwise can it serve God's people truthfully, and be seen to serve with integrity the mission given to us by Jesus ? I believe that my background and experience in dealing with complex decisions in a collaborative fashion would allow me to deal effectively and sensitively with the challenges of serving as a member of the Panel of Assessors for the diocese.

Michael Lane Nomination to Diocesan Council/Diocesan Nominators.

Michael Lane: a lifelong member of the Anglican Church, ordained priest in 2013 and in 2018 was commissioned in the ongoing role of Parish Priest, Church of the Good Shepherd, Plympton. My previous professional work experience includes employment in Education, Chaplaincy and Hospitality professions.

My childhood was in Mt Gambier. I was baptised at Christ Church as an infant. At 16 I came to Adelaide to train as a chef. Initially I worshipped at St Luke's, Modbury, then St Oswald's, Parkside where I met and later married Carol Fort. As a family, now including two children, we moved to Salisbury. We worshipped for over 20 years at Holy Cross, Elizabeth. Carol is a creative and passionate liturgist. She designed innovative outreach services and as Music Director greatly enriched regular worship. Music is also a passion of mine. As a family we gladly supported her in this role. I was also Lay Minister/Reader, Councillor, People/Priest's Warden. Holy Cross experienced several long interregnums. We were members of a church that necessarily had a strong lay leadership orientation.

During this time, I completed an arts degree and qualified as a teacher. Following three years of contract work at Gawler High, in 2000 I joined the staff of St Columba College- a joint venture Anglican/Roman Catholic school in Andrews Farm. Trained as a Classical Studies and History teacher, my classroom teaching focused extensively on Middle Schooling, Special Education, History, Geography and Hospitality Studies. In a rapidly growing school, I was inaugural Head of Middle School, mentored many young teachers, and collaboratively established the Students Services, Pastoral Care, Year Level and School House programs and often supported the worship life of the school for both students and staff. I led the Food and Hospitality faculty and became Deputy Principal- Curriculum and Learning. During this time, I began priestly formation and was ordained deacon in the school in early 2013. I was appointed by the archbishop as Chaplain to AnglicareSA and Pulteney Grammar School and ordained priest. In 2015 I became fulltime chaplain at Pulteney.

I am currently Archbishop's appointment to the board of SPW St Peter's Woodlands Anglican School and in 2022 was elected chair. I have been a church appointment to St Columba Board, served on Gawler High School Board (voted staff rep) and Diocesan Council (in the early 2000's). When the Ministry Units were created, I was appointed to the Education Formation Ministry Unit and have been a long serving member.

I served the last triennium on Diocesan Council. I am aware of the challenges and opportunities facing our diocese. I believe I bring a broad experience of church and professional life to DC and my work as a priest in the Diocese of Adelaide. I look forward to being part of the strategic change we need and being part of a DC governance team that successfully ensures the success of the recently revised Vision for our diocese.

I have the privilege of being married to Danielle (31 years) and we have 5 adult children of our own, 3 spouses, and three grandchildren (so far).

I have been part of the Adelaide diocese since 2007 and have seen that good Anglican ministry that holds to the Anglican formularies will draw people into the Kingdom of God and then grows people in maturity in Christ.

I would be able to contribute to the panel of assessors because of my commitment to these anglican formularies.

I am offering for two positions; Diocesan Clergy Nominator and Panel of Assessors.

I'm currently Archdeacon of Sturt.

I served as Archdeacon of The Para from 2014 to 2020.

I served as a member of Diocesan Council from 2014 to 2019.

I've been a member of the Property, Finance and Resources Committee (previously The Diocesan and Resources Committee) since late 2016

I served as Parish Priest at Elizabeth Holy Cross from late 2011 to late 2018. From late 2018 to late 2020 I ministered at St Cuthbert Prospect and St Christopher Kilburn.

Prior to my coming back to Australia in 2011 I was ministering in the Church of England. I was ordained there as deacon in 1998 and priest in 1999. In the CofE I've been a parish priest ministering across multiple communities in different dioceses. I've been an assessor of potential ministry candidates; I've been a companion to people discerning their vocation. I was the Course Leader on the London/Chelmsford joint course training people to be clergy (a precursor to St Mellitus).

That's a brief summary of my story. I've learned much in the years since I first went forward for ministry; I've learned much about the different ways in which we as church operate and the different approaches we take. If you think I can continue to be of service I thank you for your vote. Yours In Christ, Lyn

Reverend Canon Sophie Relf-Christopher

I have the privilege of being the Parish Priest of St Jude's Church at Brighton. I have been a part of this wonderful and thriving community for a little over six years. During most of that time we have been training candidates for ordination. Before Brighton I was the Parish Priest at the excellent parish of Broadview and Enfield, and Assistant Priest at the superb St Peter's Glenelg. I am an examining chaplain, I have been a member of the clergy conference organising group for some years, have served as a governor on the Board of Pulteney Grammar, have worked to support clergy women through the ACW network, and am a Canon of the Cathedral chapter.

I currently serve on the Church Law Commission and the Episcopal Standards Commission, both roles are best served by those who are also members of General Synod which is the reporting body. Accordingly, I seek re-election on that basis and to represent the Diocese of Adelaide in what will be a defining period for our church. (I am not sure I can claim being a young person rep anymore!)

I am a Parishioner and Lay Assistant at All Souls St Peters, where I was married to Emma and where my two Children, Kirk & Primrose, were baptised. I work as a Financial Adviser for Morgan Stanley, where I am a Senior Vice President.

This is my second Synod, and it is my observation that more Lay participation in the Diocese's running will allow Clergy to focus on running their Parishes. I am seeking your nomination to this important role as, in my opinion, the "matching" of the right Clergy for the right Parish is fundamental to rebuilding attendance and delivering missional impact. My work has, I believe, made me a reasonable judge of character.

As a life-long Anglican, I feel strongly about playing a part in ensuring that we prayerfully and carefully manage all the resources of the church to safeguard it for future generations.

I have served in this Diocese since 2006, having been ordained as deacon and priest in Adelaide that year. This length of time means I am able to understand the contours and priorities of our Diocese. During that time, I have served at Christ Church North Adelaide, St Marks Residential college, and St Georges Magill, including a church plant into Elizabeth with a majority Burundian congregation. The variety of these roles has given me experience of the different forms of churchmanship and culture that are represented in our Diocese. I have previously represented our Diocese at general synod, chaired our AFSA investment committee board, and served on the boards of Anglican Funds SA and Pedare Christian College. I was formerly a Funds Manager with AMP, so I bring financial expertise. I have been married to Ally since 2000. We have four children. I became a Christian, by God's grace, in 1993 at Macquarie University Church.
